
Directorate of Public Policy

Security and Defence Forum Newsletter

Bulletin du Forum sur la sécurité et la défense

Direction de la politique officielle

Number 12 Summer 2006

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Message from the Director ____ 1

2006 SDF Annual Fall Conference ____ 2

SDF Selection and Business Committee Meetings ____ 2

Events & Conferences ____ 2

SDF Award Winners 2006-07 ____ 3

Your SDF: Laurier's New "Program Notes" ____ 3

Recent & Upcoming Publications ____ 4

Conference: "Defence, Development and Diplomacy: The Canadian and US Military Perspectives" ____ 4

New Faces in the SDF Community ____ 5

Manfred Wörner Essay Contest ____ 5

Your SDF: Dr Stéphane Roussel ____ 6

Your SDF: Dr Robert Latham New Director, York Centre for International Security Studies ____ 6

Message from the Director

As another successful academic year comes to an end, this summer edition of the newsletter highlights some of the activities taking place over the next months.

I was very pleased to see the Centre directors and their associates in Ottawa for the annual SDF Business Committee meeting in May.

I wish everybody a safe and relaxing summer.

Aaron Hywarren
Director Public Policy

2006 SDF Annual Fall Conference

Queen's University

The Queen's Centre of International Relations looks forward to welcoming the SDF community to the beautiful and unique city of Kingston on 20-22 September 2006. The conference will focus on security and defence related issues and current trends of the SDF community and provide opportunities for academics, administrative personnel, graduate students and postdoctoral fellows, and researchers to network and collaborate on ideas. For more information, please contact Maureen Bartram at m.bartram@queensu.ca.

The Directorate of Public Policy prepares the SDF Newsletter every two months. We welcome your comments by email to SDF-FSD@forces.gc.ca. The SDF Newsletter contains links to third party sites. We provide these links as a service and convenience. The Department of National Defence takes no responsibility for the content of third-party sites and a link to them in no way implies an endorsement or recommendation of the products, services, or information found there.

SDF Selection and Business Committee Meetings

On 4-5 May 2006, the SDF Selection Committee met at the Cartier Square Drill Hall in Ottawa. The Selection Committee, chaired by Dr. James Bayer, reviewed the performance of all the Centres of Expertise and the Chair in Defence Management Studies, awarded SDF Scholarships and Internships, and assessed the overall direction of the SDF.

SDF The Centre Directors and associates, and the Chair in Defence Management Studies held their Annual Business Committee meeting the following week on 10-11 May 2006. Their gathering began with a brief meeting with the Honourable Gordon J. O'Connor, Minister of National Defence.

In addition to discussing the Forum, Directors were briefed on the SDF activities over the past year.

They were also briefed on Canadian Forces transformation by Captain (N) Serge Bertrand; and the Canadian Expeditionary Forces Command by Lieutenant-General Michael Gauthier.

Events & Conferences

2 June 2006
Admiral Sir Mark Stanhope, Deputy Supreme Allied Commander Transformation, spoke on "Understanding NATO Military Transformation" at Carleton University.

2-16 June 2006
The Laurier Centre for Military, Strategic and Disarmament Studies conducted its 12th Annual Battlefield Study Tour. The program included visits to Vimy Ridge, Beaumont-Hamel and Dieppe, as well as an intensive study of the Canadian role in the Battle of Normandy.

2 June 2006
The Centre for Military and Strategic Studies held a celebration to mark the 40th anniversary of the University of Calgary.

3-12 June 2006
Dr. Charles Pentland and Dr. Jane Boulden of the Queen's Centre for International Relations took 14 graduate students from Queen's and The Royal Military College of Canada as participants in a joint Canadian-German NATO strategy simulation on Darfur, in Bad Urach, Germany.

6 June 2006
The Canadian Centre for Treaty Compliance Carleton University hosted the Canadian launch of the Weapons of Mass Destruction Committee report at the National Press Club of Canada. For more information contact Michelle McGuire at michell.mcguire@m4cimpact.com

6-7 June 2006
The Norman Paterson School of International Affairs, the Royal Institute for International Relations, and the Canadian Institute of International Affairs (National Capital Region branch) organized a conference entitled "Polycentric Governance? Subnational Governments and Foreign Policy in an Age of Globalization." The conference considered the changing impact subnational governments have on national foreign policy and international affairs by examing three realms: trade and investment; culture and communications; and, environment and energy. For more information, please visit: www.ciia.org

14 June 2006
The Society for International Development's Ottawa-Gatineau chapter featured a discussion on "Defence, Democracy and Development: Some Perspectives." Among the subjects discussed was the nexus between defence and development, manifest in some of the acitivities and responsibilities of Canada's military and civilian efforts in Afghanistan. What does this mean for the military? What has been the history of the relationship between development, democracy and outside intervention? For more information contact wjcowie@rogers.com

15 June 2006
The Conference of Defence Associations Institute (CDAI), hosted a luncheon honouring the Secretary General of NATO, His Excellency Jaap de Hoop Scheffer. For more information visit: www.cda-cdai.ca

SDF Award Winners 2006-07

SDF academic awards provide Post-doctoral, PhD, MA, and Aboriginal scholars with an opportunity to pursue research related to security and defence studies. The SDF internships provide recent MA graduates with a year-long work experience with an organization in the security and defence field. The Selection Committee awarded the following academic scholarships and internships at its annual meeting in May 2006:

Post-doctoral fellowship ($35,000)
- Robert Patrick Lennox – proposed research to take place at Dalhousie University
- Pierre Cyril Pahlavi – proposed research to take place at Université du Québec à Montréal

Dr. Ronald Baker Doctoral Scholarship ($22,500)
- Alexandre S. Wilner – Dalhousie University

Doctoral scholarships ($20,000)
- Colleen Dena Hope Bell – York University
- Janis Leann Goldie – University of Calgary
- Robert Sean Barrett – University of Calgary

MA Scholarships ($10,000)
- Philippe Münch – Université du Québec à Montréal
- Adam D. Lajeunesse – University of Calgary
- Shanley McArthur – Dalhousie University
- Hugo Fontaine – Université de Montréal
- Ian Ellis Haight – Wilfrid Laurier University
- Darrell Vaughn Marleau – Royal Roads University
- Simon Daniel Zukowski – Simon Fraser University

Aboriginal Scholarship ($10,000)
- Tony Matthew Kennedy – University of New Brunswick

Internships ($35,000)
- Karen Lu – Canadian Institute of International Affairs
- Ty Curran – Canadian Association of Defence and Security Industries
- Melissa Rudderham – To be confirmed
- Elizabeth Sneyd – Conference of Defence Associations Institute

The Directorate of Public Policy would like to congratulate these individuals and wish them great success in the upcoming year.

15-17 June 2006
The Centre for Foreign Policy Studies at Dalhousie University presented the 2006 Maritime Security Conference "Transformation and Technology: A Canadian Maritime Perspective." A number of issues were discussed, including threats to Canada's maritime security; the need for organizational, doctrinal, and conceptual changes; current and future technologies; and, the approaches other of other nations. The conference took place 15-17 June at Dalhousie University and the Lord Nelson Hotel. For more information contact Commander Bob Edwards at redwards@dal.ca

Your SDF: Laurier's New "Program Notes"

The Laurier Centre for Military and Strategic Studies now has a newsletter entitled "Program Notes." For more information contact Michelle Fowler at mfowler@wlu.ca.

Recent & Upcoming Publications

Wong, Wilson, 2006, "Weapons in Space: Strategic and Policy Implications." Silver Dart Canadian Aerospace Studies, Volume III. Published by the Centre for Defence and Security Studies, University of Manitoba.

Kenkel, Kai Michael, the current York SDF Post-doctoral Fellow has recently written a manuscript entitled: "Language Matters: Security Disclosure and Civil-Military Relations in Brazil" which has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Political and Military Sociology.

Bell, Colleen and Tina Monaghan, eds. "The Ethics of Building Peace in International Relations." Selected proceedings of the Twelfth Annual York Centre for International and Security Studies Conference. Forthcoming 2006.

Macleod, Alex. A collective work entitled "Lutte antiterroriste et relations transatlantiques" will be published this summer by Éditions Bruylant. This book is the result of the 10th annual conference of the Association franco-canadienne des etudes stratégiques, organized by CEPES.

Berkok, Urguhan, ed. Claxton Papers #7 "Studies in Defence Procurement" will soon be available on the Chair in Defence Management Studies website www.queensu.ca/sps/defence/publications/index.htm This book was developed from the continuing relationship between Defence Mangement Studies and the Institute for Defence Resources Management at RMC.

Diez, Jordi, ed. "Canadian and Mexican Security in the New North America: Challenges and Prospects," has been published and is now available through McGill-Queen's University Press.

Conference: "Defence, Development and Diplomacy: The Canadian and US Military Perspectives"

Queen's University

The Chair of Defence Management Studies and the Centre for International Relations at Queen's University, the US Army War College, and Land Force Doctrine and Training Systems, Canadian Forces will host a conference from 21-23 June on "Defence, Development and Diplomacy: The Canadian and US Military Perspectives" at the Four Points Sheraton Hotel, Kingston.

The conference will bring together leading representatives of government, the military, NGOs and universities to analyze and compare recent experiences of the international community in working with failed or fragile states: providing a secure environment, making and keeping the peace, restoring or developing economic and social structures, and helping to build free and stable political institutions.

Registration forms are available at www.queensu.ca/cir/quawc.htm

Rempel, Roy. "Dreamland: How Canada's Pretend Foreign Policy Underrminded Sovereignty," is now available from McGill-Queen's University Press.

Carment, David and Martin Rudner, eds. "Peacekeeping Intelligence: New Players, Extended Boundaries." Routledge, 2006.

Carment, David, Patrick James, and Zeynep Taydas, "Who Intervenes? Ethnic Conflict and Interstate Crisis." Ohio State University Press, 2006.

Bercuson, David J., Aaron Plamondon, and Ray Szeto. "An Opaque Window: An Overview of Some Commitments Made by the Government of Canada Regarding the Department of National Defence and the Canadian Forces." Available on the CDFAI website at: www.cdfai.org/currentpublications.htm.

The internet site of the Université Laval Peace and Security Program features a new module entitled "Canada and Its Missions" which details the Canadian Forces and RCMP's missions abroad. The site also contains a "What's New" section and a press review on Canada and the debate surrounding the mission in Afghanistan. A section is under

Manfred Wörner Essay Contest

To honour the memory of Manfred Wörner, the late NATO Secretary General, and in particular the role he played in transforming the Alliance at the end of the Cold War, the NATO Allies agreed in October 2005 to create an annual essay-writing competition with two awards. In 2006, there will be a Junior NATO Manfred Wörner Essay Award and the Senior NATO Manfred Wörner Essay Award. The deadline for applications is 31 August 2006.

The Junior NATO Manfred Wörner Essay Award is open to academics, researchers and writers from both NATO and Partner countries, aged between 20 and 35. A prize of € 5000 will be awarded to the individual who submits the best essay on a topic of relevance to the Alliance. The essay should not exceed 5000 words and should be suitable for widespread dissemination, including in NATO publications.

The Senior NATO Manfred Wörner Essay Award is open to academics, researchers and writers from both NATO and Partner countries, aged 35 years and older, who are already established in the field of international security policy. A prize of € 10000 will be awarded to the individual who submits the best essay on a topic of relevance to the Alliance. The essay should not exceed 5000 words and should be suitable for widespread dissemination, including in NATO publications.

The announcement of the recipients will be made by the NATO Secretary General on the margins of the NATO Ministerial in December 2006.

For more information and application forms, please visit: http://www.nato.int/acad/fellow/mw00e.htm development on existing literature on Canadian missions and hyperlinks to Canadian missions. For more information: http://www.psi.ighei.ulaval.ca/.

The summer 2006 edition of the Journal of Military and Strategic Studies (JMSS) will be available the end of June at www.jmss.org.

Shamsie, Yasmine and Andrew Thompson, eds. "Haiti: Hope for a Fragile State." Published by Wilfrid Laurier University Press. For more information visit: http://info.wlu.ca/%7Ewwwmsds/bookslcmsds.htm.

Hayes, Geoff, Andrew Iarocci, Mike Bechthold. "Vimy Ridge: A Canadian Reassessment." Publication date: Autumn 2006. Wilfrid Laurier University Press. For more information visit: http://info.wlu.ca/%7Ewwwmsds/bookslcmsds.htm.

New Faces in the SDF Community

Jonathan Havercroft will join the UBC Centre of International Relations as the new SDF Post-doctoral Fellow in July 2006. He is currently at the University of Victoria as a Sessional Instructor in the Department of Political Science.

Veronica Kitchen will join the UBC Centre of International Relations as a SSHRC Post-doctoral Fellow in late summer 2006. She is currently at Brown University.

The York Centre for International and Security Studies announced that Michael J.K. Larsen is this year's recipient of the George G. Bell Doctoral Scholarship. Mr. Larsen was admitted to York University's PhD program in Sociology. The award is valued at $5000 for the academic year and is awarded to a student who has been accepted to York University to pursue a PhD or LLM, and whose research interests fall within the mandate of YCISS, regardless of the discipline in which they are pursuing their graduate training.

The Queen's Centre of International Relations welcomes its newest Visiting Defence Fellow, LCol Matthew Glunz from the US Army, and regretfully says goodbye and best wishes to their outgoing Visiting Defence Fellows: LCol Michael Rostek, Canadian Forces who has been posted to CFB Kingston; LCol Stephen Mariano, US Army, who will be at RMC working on his doctorate in War Studies; and, LCol Michael McCarthy, US Air Force, who is relocating to Central Command in Florida.

The Carleton Centre for Security and Defence Studies welcomed Dr. Laura Stovel as research associate. Dr. Stovel is a specialist in reconciliation after mass atrocity, post-conflict transitions, post-colonial conflicts, comparative conflict analysis, and restorative justice. Her regional focus is Africa. In her most recent research she investigated the reconciliation process in post-war Sierra Leone and followed the Truth and Reconciliation Commission there.

Your SDF: Dr Stéphane Roussel

Stéphane Roussel is currently assistant professor, Department of Political Science, Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM) and Canada Research Chair in Canadian Foreign and Defence Policy. A Fellow with the Canadian Defence & Foreign Affairs Institute – CDFAI (2005-2006), he is an associate member of the Centre d'études des politiques étrangères et de sécurité (CEPES), UQAM, the York Centre for International and Security Studies (YCISS), York University, and of the Research Group in International Security (REGIS), Université de Montréal/McGill University.

His research interests relate to Canadian foreign and defence policy, with particular emphasis on relations with the United States and European countries. He has also developed an expertise in related fields, such as international relations theory and military history. Dr. Roussel has published several articles and books related to these themes.

The Carleton Centre for Security and Defence Studies announced the addition of two new faculty associates: Prof Andrew Cohen of the School of Journalism and NPSIA, who brings his expertise on Canada-US relations and Canadian foreign and military policy; and Dane Rowlands, who teaches the Economics of Conflict course at NPSIA, has worked on conflict and development issues, formal modeling of peacekeeping and intervention, and economic policies associated with state failure.

The Centre for Military and Strategic Studies at the University of Calgary is very pleased to announce that they have admitted seven students to their Master's of Strategic Studies program, and one Special Case PhD student for the fall of 2006.

Your SDF: Dr. Robert Latham
New Director, York Centre for International Security Studies

The York Centre for International Security Studies is very pleased to announce that Dr. Robert Latham will be joining the Centre as Director in January 2007. He is currently a visiting fellow at the Transnationalism Project at the University of Chicago. Prior to that he served for over eleven years as a program director and officer at the Social Science Research Council (SSRC), most recently managing the Program on Information Technology and International Cooperation. Previous to that he directed the the Program on Global Security and Cooperation and the SSRC-MacArthur Foundation Program on International Peace and Security. He holds an M.A. from the University of Chicago and a Ph.D in Political Science from the New School for Social Research (1994). Throughout his time with SSRC he produced numerous refereed publications and books in areas such as alliance politics, information technology and security, globalization, diplomatic history, human rights, international governance, intervention, and transnationalism. Among his publications are "The Liberal Moment: Modernity, Security, and the Making of International Order," "Intervention and Transnationalism in Africa: Global-Local Networks of Power" (co-edited with Thomas Callaghy and Ron Kassimer), and "Digital Formations: IT and New Architectures in the Global Realm" (co-edited with Saskia Sassen) He has also taught at New York area schools including Columbia University.